I don't know your exact name, but in a way, I do know you. I know you through your helping action that shed light on who our Father is like . . . It turned this second disaster in the past two years in my life into something else; something from God's voice, divinely loving and gentle. It's not flood, not storm, not hail anymore. The transformation comes from God's delivery, and God's delivery is being carried out by the hands and hearts of you all.

We are inspired by Margaret's Good News of God's transforming power through difficult circumstances!

ARDF is honored to celebrate the work of the local church in communities all around the world!
